

Dear _____,

I miss you so much! How are things going back in _____? I promise I'll come and visit when I can get time off _____. I'm sorry I don't get the chance to come over or write that often, but I've been super busy with all my new projects. Just know that you are always in my heart and thoughts, even when I don't get a chance to call.

To make up for lost time, I wanted to ask I could come and visit you during my next vacation. I miss your famous homemade _____! I told all my friends about it and they said I had to bring some back to share with them. To be honest, I really miss spending time with you and I can't wait to see you again.

I hope you are well and I'm excited to hear back from you! Whatever time during the _____ and _____ period is fine with me, according to your schedule too. Please let me know when it would be more convenient for you. Love and miss you!

Sincerely,

P.S. I promise I'll bring a treat too! Lots of love!
